

NO	HAZARD	LOCATION	WHO IS AT RISK	HAZARD REDUCTION METHODS	ACCEPTABLE RESIDUAL RISK
1	Vehicle access & parking	Site	All handlers and Canines	Report immediately to Site Staff All handlers made aware of site safety policy. All handlers to wear hi - viz clothing Canines to be kept under control at all times or kennelled in vehicles All vehicles to be parked in designated areas Personnel not to enter out of bounds areas (fork lift truck routes etc)	YES
2	Slip, trips and falls	Training Area	All handlers and Canines	Maintain tidy working area, use equipment dumps etc. Full PPE to be worn at all times. Dynamic risk assessment to be carried out and training areas to be checked first before training commences.	YES
3	Noise	Any training area	All handlers and Canines	Use of earplug / ear defenders when operating equipment or working in noisy areas.	YES
4	Dust	Vicinity of, or down wind of dust producing tools	All handlers and Canines	Use of dust masks when in vicinity mandatory Keep clear of these areas when machines are working.	YES
5	Movement of Concrete or rubble pile	Training Area	All handlers and Canines	Dynamic risk assessment by Safety Officer or training superior before each training session commences.	Yes
6	Injuries	Training area	All handlers and Canines	First Aid & Trauma packs to be carried EMT qualified person to be available on site at all times Mobile phones to be carried. Contact Rich Boyce or demolition	Yes

				staff on site if any incident takes place Canine Veterinary packs to be carried or available in vehicles All handlers to wear full PPE at all times
--	--	--	--	---	--

NUMBER OF SAFETY OFFICERS REQUIRED –ONE INSTRUCTOR/ SUPERVISOR 2

IN CONSIDERATION OF ALL FACTORS IN THE RISK ASSESSMENT, ARE THE RISKS FROM HAZARDS REDUCED TO A TOLERABLE LEVEL TO ALLOW THE TRAINING TO BE UNDERTAKEN?	YES
---	-------------------

AREA OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR SAFETY OFFICERS

Dog handling personnel All attending personnel have been advised of the clothing/ppe requirements for the training. Canine welfare All dog handlers are self sufficient in the welfare needs of their dogs. Local veterinary practice is aware of the training location and will provide medical attention for the dogs if required. Communications No radios or mobile telephones are to be used at this location. There is a telephone available within the site office for emergencies. Medical resources Lfrs will supply a comprehensive 1st aid kit. Adequate numbers of 1st aid qualified personnel to be in attendance at all venues. One support vehicle will be designated as an emergency vehicle and only used for this purpose while training is on going. The phone number and location of the local hospital/doctor to be readily available. Environment All dog waste to be removed from the area, along with any rubbish accumulated over the course of the training.
--

SAFETY OFFICERS BRIEF TO INCLUDE

Liason with site operators before training commences. Ensure correct ppe is worn at all times Maintain tidy work area, highlight any trip hazards to operatives. Maintain manual handling good practice. Ensure cordons and site security is maintained All out of bounds areas are identified to personnel
--

GENERAL SAFETY BRIEF TO INCLUDE

Evacuation and emergency procedures. Use site telephone or mobile to call ambulance/ fire control First aid/ injury reporting procedure. administer first aid, dial 999 to call ambulance, inform fire control, complete per/17 Accident and near miss investigation will be carried out as per normal service procedure- inform site owners/occupiers
